To expand RCC's capacity, this activity or resource:
Helps the RCC help states frame a problem in new ways.	RCCs can use the document to help SEAs understand what research shows to be the most effective accommodations for ELLs on large-scale assessments and how they might lay the groundwork for districts to understand what types of accommodations to offer students in their schools.
Helps the RCC help states accomplish a goal or solve a problem.	This document along with the accompanying PowerPoint module can be used by SEAs to dialogue with districts around the use of accommodations for ELLs in large-scale assessments.
Helps the RCC help states improve or support an ongoing state program, policy, or practice.	RCCs can help state leaders use the information contained in the document to inform their decisions on policy and grant funds that support the education of ELL students.
Helps the RCC enhance states' ability to address NCLB/*ESEA requirements.	It helps RCCs focus the discussion with SEAs on the specific subgroup of ELL students and the methods for improving student achievement with this population.
Helps RCC improve states' ability to work with districts.	RCCs can support the SEAs in using the document and the accompanying Power Point module with districts for professional development.
Enables the RCC to carry out its work more effectively.	It provides clear professional research-based knowledge to deepen RCC understanding of recommendations for the use of accommodations for ELLs in large-scale assessments.
