Classroom “Do Now” and “Exit Tickets”

KIPP San Francisco Bay Academy, California

Topic: Adolescent Literacy

Practice: Comprehension Strategies

Megan Montgomery, a sixth-grade social studies teacher, scaffolds her class’ learning about Sumerian civilization by using motivating “Do Now” questions at the beginning of class and having students complete “Exit Ticket” questions at the end of class to check for understanding.

Do Now/Exit Tickets

MONDAY

DO NOW

Scientists sometimes describe a society or group of humans as "highly civilized." What do you think this means?

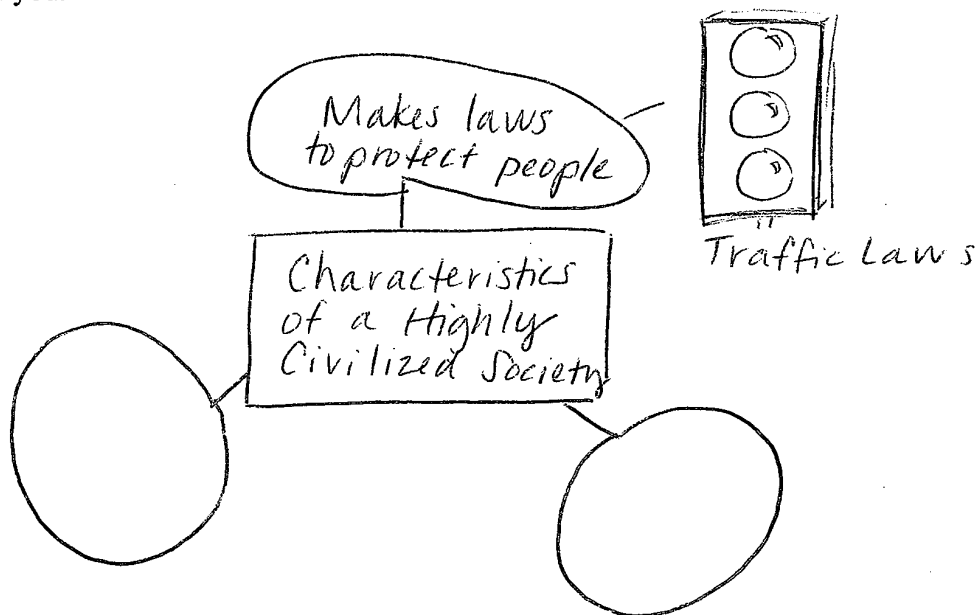

EXIT TICKET

Use the words "culture" and "civilization" in one or more meaningful sentence.

TUESDAY

DO NOW

Fill in the empty spokes of the diagram below with words that describe characteristics of a society that is highly civilized. For each spoke, draw and label a simple example of that description. One spoke is completed for you.

EXIT TICKET

List the seven characteristics of civilization.
